

Disclaimer

We are not offering to sell this insurance product or service. We also do not provide any insurance or financial advice, offer, or underwrite this product. This product is underwritten and issued by Income and distributed by us.

We are not responsible for your application or for the contract of insurance. In facilitating this insurance arrangement, we are acting as Income's distributor and not as your agent.

Please ensure that you understand the product features and terms before purchasing. Premium payment will be made using your Trust Credit Card. Please ensure that your credit card has sufficient credit limit. Otherwise, your policy application and renewal may fail.

By proceeding, you consent to us disclosing your personal data to Income for application purposes. If your details have changed after this application has been approved, please inform us. Any change will not be automatically reflected in our records.

How you choose your marketing preferences with us will not be updated if your marketing preferences with Income are different. Update your marketing preferences with us through your Trust app under Account settings.
